Jan Archer
Owner
Archer Farms and Archer Consulting

Jan Archer is a pig farmer from Eastern North Carolina, where she and her husband, Jack, operate their 1200 sow family farm. Jan graduated from Michigan State University and has been part of the Pork Industry for more than forty years. She has raised livestock in four different states and 3 three different countries including Honduras, Guatemala and Singapore. Jan is the Past President of the National Pork Board. In addition to the farm, Jan has a consulting business in which she delivers training and certifications to farmers and conducts assessments on farms focusing on animal welfare, food safety and environmental sustainability. In her free time, she enjoys playing with the five smartest, funniest and most beautiful grandchildren in the world and cheering on the Green Bay packers, Carolina Hurricanes and NCSU Pack.
