RALEIGH, NC

Marisa Bocci
Partner
K&L Gates

Marisa Bocci is a partner in the firm's Seattle office. She works on a range of transactional matters, including purchase and sale agreements, joint venture arrangements, and leasing. Her practice focuses on hotel and resort properties, commercial real estate assets, agriculture and agribusiness matters, and natural resource investment activities. Marisa advises asset managers and institutional investors on direct investing, co-investments, joint ventures, and other investment strategies relating to real assets in a variety of sectors.

In addition to her general commercial real estate practice, Marisa has specific sector experience handling farmland and agribusiness transactions. Further, she advises clients on the purchase and sale of vertically integrated farming and food processing enterprises, working on joint venture and M&A transactions. With her active interest in agriculture policy matters, Marisa advises clients on foreign and corporate farmland regulations (including AFIDA filings and state analog filings). She is familiar with farm management issues and assists clients on legal matters arising from day-to-day farm operations, representing owners and managers in the negotiation of property management agreements for farmland, grower agreements, and packing operations. Marisa helps clients with water resource matters, including Bureau of Reclamation water arrangements.

Finally, she works with clients on their sustainability initiatives and ESG-guided policies and compliance activities. She is a co-chair of the K&L Gates Agribusiness and Food & Beverage industry groups, and regularly speaks and publishes on agribusiness topics. Marisa is licensed to practice law in New York and Washington.
