

AN NC CHAMBER EVENT

Building NC

APRIL 2025

Patrick Bowen
Founder and President
Bowen National Research

Patrick Bowen, President of Bowen National Research, has conducted more than 100 housing needs assessments and provided consulting services to city, county, and state development entities as it relates to a variety of housing issues since 1996. He has also prepared and supervised thousands of market feasibility studies for all types of real estate products, including housing, retail, office, and mixed-use developments. Mr. Bowen has his bachelor's degree in legal administration (with emphasis on business and law) from the University of West Florida and currently serves as the Chairman of the National Council of Housing Market Analysts (NCHMA), an organization that sets the national standards for housing market studies.

