

AN NC CHAMBER EVENT

Ag Allies Conference

SEPTEMBER 30, 2025
RALEIGH, NC

Janae Brady
Vice President, Government Affairs
American Seed Trade Association

Janae Brady serves as the Vice President, Government Affairs for the American Seed Trade Association where she leads federal advocacy efforts on behalf of the seed industry. She previously served as staff for Chairman Pat Roberts on the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry where she advised on policy issues including international trade, agricultural research, biotechnology, crop protection and agricultural defense. Brady successfully led negotiations on the trade and research titles during the 2018 Farm Bill reauthorization. Additionally, Brady represented the Chairman during the consultation process for multiple international trade negotiations, including the U.S.-Mexico-Canada Agreement.

Brady began her career as a high school English teacher. She grew up working on her family's wheat and sorghum farm located in Kansas. Janae holds degrees from Kansas State University and the George Washington University.
