Paige Cocke
Executive Coach & Organizational Efficiency Expert
Founder of Realize Success

With over 20 years of experience as an executive coach, mentor, and organizational efficiency expert, Paige has dedicated her career to helping leaders and organizations excel through intentional culture building and leadership development. As the founder of Realize Success, Paige brings together decades of experience in coaching, organizational design, and corporate strategy to help leaders navigate the complexities of leadership transitions, build resilient teams, and create financially stable, high-performing organizations.

A CPA by trade, Paige has worked with Fortune 500 companies like General Electric, Genworth, and DR Horton, where she played an integral role in driving organizational transformations. Most notably, she spearheaded GE's first-ever IPO and led strategic initiatives that resulted in the successful turnaround of two and sale of one family-owned builders, utilizing her expertise in mergers and acquisitions. She has also used this experience to enhance organizational design and leadership transitions which has made her a sought-after coach for executives, new leaders, teams and organizations.

Passionate about fostering self-awareness and purpose-driven leadership, Paige is a Certified Success Trainer, having been mentored by Jack Canfield, co-author of Chicken Soup for the Soul and The Success Principles. She is also a Certified Values Assessment Consultant and Certified in Aligned Coaching, using reflective inquiry methods to help clients uncover their true potential and align their actions with their values.

In her breakout session, Transition Tales: Navigating Career and Leadership Shifts with Confidence, Paige will share real-life stories and strategies for confidently managing career transitions and new leadership responsibilities. Attendees can expect to leave with practical tools for recognizing when it's time for a change, preparing for new roles, and maintaining resilience and balance throughout the process.

Whether you're a seasoned leader or stepping into new territory, Paige's unique blend of experience, coaching techniques, and holistic view of organizational success make her the go-to expert for those looking to lead with confidence, clarity, and purpose.
