Jennifer C. Dunleavy
President and Chief Executive Officer
Accuro

Jennifer Dunleavy is president and chief executive officer of Accuro, a leading talent acquisition solutions provider headquartered in Raleigh, NC. In August of this year, Accuro was named as one of “America’s Fastest-Growing Privately-Held Companies” by Inc. Magazine for its second time. Staffing Industry magazine also named Accuro as one of the “Fastest-Growing Staffing Companies in the United States.” Accuro has been recognized by regional chambers of commerce, including receiving Pinnacle Awards for Entrepreneurial Excellence and Steady Growth and Profitability. The company is also perennially recognized as a Top Employment Services Company, Top Technical Staffing Company and Top Executive Recruitment Firm by the Triangle Business Journal. Accuro identifies top professional, technical and executive talent for career opportunities with the world’s best companies.

Prior to founding Accuro in 2003, Jennifer held business development and management roles with the world’s largest recruitment and broadcasting corporations. Along with the Accuro team, Jennifer is an active supporter of a variety of North Carolina’s business and community organizations, including the North Carolina Chamber, Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, and Shepherd’s Table Soup Kitchen. In her spare time, Jennifer enjoys mentoring aspiring women entrepreneurs, traveling and spending time at the beach. Jennifer received a bachelor’s degree in business administration - entrepreneurship from Western Carolina University. She lives in Raleigh with her husband, John, and their son, Evan.
