

Education & Workforce Conference

AUGUST 11, 2021 | VIRTUAL

Representative Jeffrey Elmore

Representative Jeffrey Elmore serves the 94th House District in the North Carolina House of Representatives. The current district is made up of a portion of Wilkes County and all of Alexander County.

He has served as House of Representative for four terms since his election in 2012. He is now on his fifth term. He is Chairman of Appropriations, Vice-Chair of Education, Appropriations, and member of Agriculture, Education Community College, Education K-12, and Pension and Retirement committees.

Prior to his service in state government, he served as a Commissioner in the Town of North Wilkesboro and was elected in 2007. Prior to his service as Commissioner, he served as a planning board member and chairman of the Board of Adjustments. He served as president of Professional Educators of North Carolina (PENC), a nonpartisan group of 7,000 teachers in North Carolina and also as a board member of the Blue Ridge Opportunity Commission (BROC) which manages Head Start and aids unprivileged citizens. BROC serves Wilkes, Ashe, and Alleghany counties.

He grew up in Wilkes County and has deep family roots. He was a North Carolina Teaching Fellow and graduated from Appalachian State University, Summa Cum Laude. Upon graduation he went into the classroom, he is a teacher in Wilkes County Schools in his 20th year. Rep. Elmore is the only practicing public school teacher in the entire legislative body in the General Assembly.

He, his wife Laura and children reside in North Wilkesboro.