

21st ANNUAL

ECONOMIC FORECAST FORUM

JANUARY 6, 2023 | DURHAM, NC

Dr. Eugene Flood
Director
Janus Henderson Group

Eugene Flood Jr. has been a Non-Executive Director of Janus Henderson since May 2017. Mr. Flood was a Non-Executive Director of Janus Capital Group from January 2014 to May 2017 and is currently the Chair of the Board Risk Committee and a member of the Audit Committee and Nominating and Governance Committee.

Mr. Flood has served as Chairman of the advisory board for the Institute for Global Health and Infectious Diseases at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill since 2014 and as a Director of the Research Corporation for Science Advancement since 2015. Previously, Mr. Flood served as a Director of The Foundation for the Carolinas from 2012 to 2015 and as a Trustee of the Financial Accounting Foundation from 2016 to 2020. He was Executive Vice President of TIAA-CREF from 2011 until his retirement in 2012, serving on the CREF Board of Trustees and the TIAA-CREF Mutual Fund Board of Trustees for seven years, and chairing the Investment Committee. Prior to joining TIAA-CREF as an executive in 2011, Mr. Flood spent 12 years with Smith Breeden Associates, a North Carolina-based fixed income asset manager, as President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Flood also served with Morgan Stanley in a range of trading and investment positions from 1987 to 1999 and was an Assistant Professor of Finance at Stanford Business School from 1982 to 1987. Mr. Flood earned a BA degree in Economics from Harvard University and a PhD in Economics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.