

AN NC CHAMBER EVENT

Education & Workforce Conference

AUGUST 11, 2022
DURHAM, NC

Susan L. Gates
Special Advisor on Education
SAS

Since 2014, Susan has worked at SAS to improve education systems across the country and, especially, in North Carolina, shaping federal and state education policy through advocacy and initiatives. Susan is Chair of the Workforce Readiness Committee at the NC Chamber and serves as an appointed member of North Carolina's B-3 Interagency Council. Previously, Susan was national director of America's Edge, a business leaders' organization in Washington D.C., whose members advocate for evidence-based education policies. She spent five years as general counsel of the Children's Defense Fund, a national children's advocacy organization located in D.C., and practiced law for 18 years as a business litigation partner with Hall, Estill, headquartered in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

