FEBRUARY 4, 2026
RALEIGH, NC

John Gillan
Associate General Counsel & Head of Sustainability
Martin Marietta

John Gillan is an experienced attorney currently serving as Associate General Counsel and Head of Sustainability at Martin Marietta Materials in Raleigh. Prior to his current role, John held several in-house positions in Raleigh, Dallas and Danville, Virginia. John began his legal career as a law firm associate specializing in environmental law and so his practice has always included environmental matters even as other areas have been added to his portfolio. John earned a JD from Georgetown University Law Center in 1990 and a BA in Political Science from Drew University in 1987.
