

AN NC CHAMBER EVENT

Workplace Diversity and Inclusion Conference

JUNE 13, 2019 | RALEIGH, NC

Brittany Glover Intersections

Brittany Glover, SAFe 4.5 Agilist, CSM, CPO — has been a transformative and data-driven Product Management leader, UI Engineer and educator for over 12 years. Her passion stems from experiencing discrimination first hand through high level tech companies and creating approaches that were beneficial in her experience as well as within the organization as a whole. As a founder of three successful startups she is familiar with how a company's diversity and inclusion efforts can make or break a team; she uses her intersectional abilities to assist companies with their innovation, creativity and actively takes businesses on a journey to help them transform. As a D&I coach and consultant she continues to help teams redefine inclusion and culture across the board.
