Muffy Grant
Executive Director
North Carolina Early Childhood Foundation

Muffy Grant is the Executive Director of the North Carolina Early Childhood Foundation. Prior to this role, she was Director of Development at both Prevent Child Abuse NC and the Institute for Child Success in Greenville, South Carolina. Before making a career change by entering the world of child advocacy in 2015, Muffy spent the previous decade involved in exchange visitor programs in public/private partnership with the Department of State. Muffy has traveled to many countries in support of public diplomacy efforts but believes that diplomacy truly begins early and at home and is happy to be a champion for the children of her native state, North Carolina. Muffy holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Humanistic Studies from Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame. She has a master's degree in International Affairs focusing on demographics and labor migration from Georgetown University and a Certificate in Nonprofit Management from Duke University. She and her husband have four children ranging in age from eleven to five.
