

Stephanie Jensen

Director, BASF Professional & Specialty Solutions NA

Stephanie leads the North American Professional & Specialty Solutions business for BASF which includes the turf, ornamental, vegetation, and pest management markets in the United States & Canada.

Stephanie started her professional career with Digital Equipment corporation in Finance. She worked in various financial roles for technology and telecommunications companies before joining BASF in 2002. In her career with BASF, she has held various roles in controlling, marketing, and strategy for BASF's agricultural division. She holds a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's in business administration from Bentley University in Massachusetts.

Stephanie represents BASF on the board of directors of Wake Education Partnership, currently leading the Board Development Committee. She also serves on a number of industry boards, including the Professional Pest Management Alliance and RISE (Responsible Industry for a Sound Environment) where she is currently serving as Board Chair. Within BASF, she serves as a site sponsor for the Diversity & Inclusion Council. Stephanie and her family currently reside in Willow Spring, North Carolina.