

Brad Jones*EVP of Carolinas Commercial Banking, Charlotte Regional President
First National Bank

Brad Jones is Executive Vice President of Commercial Banking for the Carolinas, overseeing FNB's multiple markets in North Carolina and South Carolina. In addition to his home market in Charlotte, Jones manages the execution of FNB's Commercial Banking sales model throughout its Eastern North Carolina, Piedmont, Raleigh-Durham and South Carolina Regions. The Regional Presidents serving these markets report to Jones, who also maintains his previous position as Regional Market Executive and President of the Charlotte Region. He joined FNB in 2019 with more than 30 years of extensive financial services experience, including leadership roles with BBVA, Wells Fargo and Bank of America.

Mr. Jones received his Business Administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and Master of Business Administration from the University of North Florida. Heavily involved in the community, Jones currently serves on Boards for the NC Bankers Association, the NC Chamber, Junior Achievement of Central Carolinas, the UNC Board of Visitors, and the St. Jude Executive Circle.
