

Kinneil Coltman, DHA

SVP, Chief Community & Social Impact Officer
Atrium Health

Leadership Profile

Kinneil Coltman, DHA, is senior vice president and chief community & social impact officer for Atrium Health, one of the most comprehensive and highly integrated not-for-profit healthcare systems in the nation. As a member of the senior leadership team, Dr. Coltman is responsible for developing a unified social impact strategy to advance the well-being of communities that Atrium Health serves by improving healthcare access, addressing social determinants of health and advancing health equity. Dr. Coltman's areas of responsibility include Community Health, Community Engagement & Corporate Responsibility, the Career Development Center, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, Health Equity and Social Strategy & Impact.

Dr. Coltman has nearly 20 years of experience in the healthcare industry, having devoted most of her career to leading diversity and health equity initiatives. She joined Atrium Health in 2016 and, prior to her current role, served as vice president and chief diversity officer. Before joining Atrium Health, Dr. Coltman held dual appointments as Chief Diversity Officer for Greenville Health System, now known as Prisma Health, and the University of South Carolina School of Medicine Greenville.

Dr. Coltman earned a Bachelor of Science in business administration from the University of North Carolina at Asheville, a Masters in cross cultural studies from the University of Houston –Clear Lake, a Doctorate of Health Administration from the Medical University of South Carolina, and was a Fellow in the Health Research and Educational Trust's Cross Cultural Leadership Fellowship, sponsored by the American Hospital Association.