Kim Korando is recognized as one of North Carolina's leading employment lawyers by Chambers USA: America's Leading Business Lawyers, Law and Politics North Carolina Super Lawyers, Best Lawyers® and Business North Carolina Legal Elite. She founded the firm's Employment, Labor and Human Resources practice group and served as its inaugural leader.

For more than 30 years, Kim has served as a trusted advisor to public and private companies throughout the U.S. in matters of financial, reputational and operational significance. Her work has led to Chambers' USA client reviews describing her as "simply outstanding on employment law," "a diligent top tier attorney," who does "a first class job" and "has a way of looking at several different sides of a situation to evaluate it clearly," and "is exceedingly bright, capable and practical, and gives current pragmatic advice."

Kim serves as general outside employment and labor and human resources counsel to public and private companies in a wide variety of industries including utilities, pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, hospitals and healthcare, automotive, semiconductor, paper/cellulose and furniture manufacturers, insurance, banking, retail, hospitality, and food and beverage distribution, as well as municipalities and law firms.

Kim is retained as special counsel to conduct independent internal investigations, workplace compliance audits and workplace culture assessments, including those arising from #Me-Too and Social Justice movements and allegations of hostile and toxic work environments.

Kim is a thought leader who frequently speaks and writes on human resources compliance and risk management issues in the business and legal community. She regularly collaborates with
