MultiState

Bill Kramer is MultiState's Vice President of Policy and Counsel and has been with the company since 2011. Recognized for his wide breadth of state legislative and policy knowledge, he oversees the firm's research services, advises clients on strategic government affairs initiatives, develops and manages coalitions and associations, and pens the weekly Morning Multistate newsletter, among other problem-solving endeavors.

At the onset of the 2020 pandemic, Mr. Kramer was integral in quickly organizing internal resources to create MultiState's COVID-19 State and Local Policy Tracker, a resource library and data dashboard providing clients and the public with timely, accurate information on the state and local government responses to COVID-19.

He is an experienced lawyer and association executive who served as deputy executive director of the Council of State Chambers (COSC) — the association of state chambers of commerce — and built the COSC Policy Center from the ground up. Mr. Kramer is an active member of the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) where he was a member of the Government Relations Section Council and chaired the State Relations Subcommittee from 2016 to 2019. Bill became a Certified Association Executive (CAE) in 2018 and has been a member of the State Bar of California since 2010.

He has addressed and presented to dozens of trade and professional organizations, including the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL), Public Affairs Council (PAC), Professional Women in Advocacy Conference, Automated Vehicles Symposium, American Tort Reform Association (ATRA), and the Mercatus Center at George Mason University. Mr. Kramer has been quoted as a policy and industry expert in many publications, including Politico, Governing, Casper Star-Tribune, The Texan, Alabama Political Reporter, and Chronicle Media (Illinois).

His previous experience includes the U.S. Senate, California State Assembly, and Legislative Counsel's Office of California. Bill earned his bachelor's degree in history from Ohio University and his Juris Doctor from the University of Pacific McGeorge School of Law, where he served as Managing Editor of the McGeorge Law Review. Mr. Kramer considers himself a policy generalist but has a passion for technology and infrastructure issues. He also enjoys developing future leaders, and as such initiated and coordinates MultiState's internship program.
