Sarah Grace Lee
NC Ag Leads Manager
NC Chamber

Sarah Grace Lee is the NC Ag Leads manager at the NC Chamber, where she manages relationships with stakeholders, supports the leadership of the project in various ways, and helps execute strategic efforts. With a bachelor's degree in Agribusiness Management from North Carolina State University, Sarah Grace has leveraged the foundation of her education and brings an entrepreneurial and professional spirit to the team. Before her career at the NC Chamber, she worked at North Carolina State University as the Office of Student Mentoring Program coordinator in the Agribusiness Management Department.

Sarah Grace grew up on a diversified row crop operation in Robeson County, North Carolina, where she developed a passion and knowledge for agriculture. While in college, she started a small business that she continues to run, keeping her involved on the farm year-round.

Outside of her professional commitments, Sarah Grace enjoys canning garden vegetables and spending time with her dog, Cowboy.
