

AN NC CHAMBER EVENT

Environmental Compliance Conference

JANUARY 26, 2023
DURHAM, NC

Melissa Romano
Attorney
Robinson Bradshaw

Melissa Romano represents clients in high-stakes litigation including environmental and toxic tort claims, contract disputes, employment matters and class actions. Her environmental experience spans defending utilities in enforcement actions under the Clean Water Act, Clean Air Act and Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, to handling litigation over coal combustion residuals for major utility companies.

Melissa also handles complex employment discrimination, harassment, retaliation, Fair Credit Reporting Act, OSHA and wage-and-hour disputes, including class actions. She has significant experience advising clients on internal investigations and on e-discovery issues in litigation. Melissa maintains an active pro bono practice representing indigent clients in a variety of matters.

Before joining Robinson Bradshaw, Melissa was an attorney at Hunton Andrews Kurth in Charlotte.
