

AN NC CHAMBER EVENT

Building NC

APRIL 2, 2024

Dr. Zagros Madjd-Sadjadi
Professor of Economics
Winston-Salem State University

Dr. Zagros Madjd-Sadjadi is Professor of Economics at Winston-Salem State University and has more than 30 years of economic consulting and teaching experience. He is the former Chief Economist of the City and County of San Francisco and has provided consulting services for various governments and businesses ranging from small to medium-sized enterprises to Fortune 500 firms. His work has been cited in the Congressional Record, helped secure state approval for the I-74 corridor in Winston-Salem, and led to the repeal of the Glass-Steagall Act. He is the author of half a dozen books, including three textbooks, and over 60 academic articles and book chapters.

