Dr. Jolee Marsh

Associate Vice President for Corporate and Continuing Education Fayetteville Technical Community College

Dr. Jolee Marsh is the associate vice president for corporate and continuing education at Fayetteville Technical Community College. She holds a B.S. in business administration, a M.A.Ed in reading education, a Special Education Certificate, and an ED.d in higher education leadership. She has experience teaching at both K-12 and higher education levels, and has served in an administrative capacity in higher education for 6 years.

Dr. Marsh has worked diligently to serve her local community, Fort Bragg, and industry partners. Her division is one of the largest Workforce and Continuing Education divisions in North Carolina. One of her programs, Transition Tech, was nominated in 2017 and 2018 as a Bellwether Finalist for innovation and inclusivity of NC Works which provides free workforce training for transitioning service members. Alongside of the Continuing Education Division, Dr. Marsh oversees the College and Career Readiness Department, Small Business Center, Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, Customized Training, and Apprenticeships.

She is an active member of the North Carolina Adult Education Association, member of the North Carolina Community College Leadership Program, serves on the North Carolina Community College Workforce and Continuing Education Committee, and serves on the local North Carolina State Employees Credit Union Board.

Dr. Marsh is married to her wonderful husband, David, and has a beautiful daughter, Annemarie. She enjoys jogging, reading, and traveling with her family to new and former destinations.
