

AN NC CHAMBER EVENT

Environmental Compliance Conference

JANUARY 31, 2024
DURHAM, NC

Channing Martin
Partner
Williams Mullen

Channing Martin is the founding member and past chair of the Environment and Natural Resources Group at Williams Mullen in its Richmond Office. His practice focuses on solid and hazardous waste under RCRA and hazardous substances under CERCLA, including the remediation and redevelopment of contaminated property. He has represented clients at more than 500 NPL, RCRA corrective action, voluntary cleanup, and Brownfields sites over his career.

Mr. Martin is a former officer and member of the Executive Committee of the American Bar Association's Section of Environment, Energy and Resources. He is past Chair of the Virginia State Bar's Environmental Law Section, and founder and past Chair of the Richmond Bar Association's Environmental Law Section. Mr. Martin is listed in Chambers U.S.A. (Band 1), Virginia Super Lawyers, Virginia's Legal Elite and The Best Lawyers in America (2013 "Environmental Lawyer of the Year - Richmond"). He is author of numerous articles and chapters in national publications, including Brownfields Law and Practice (LEXIS Publishing 2023) and Implementing Institutional Controls at Brownfields and Other Contaminated Sites (ABA Publishing). He speaks on environmental issues at numerous state and national conferences.

Mr. Martin is active in community affairs. He is a former chair of the board of United Way of Richmond and was the campaign chair of the 2004 Richmond United Way campaign. Before joining Williams Mullen, Mr. Martin served as law clerk to Justice A. Christian Compton of the Supreme Court of Virginia. He obtained his law degree and his undergraduate degree from Washington & Lee University.