

Mitch Perry
Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina (Blue Cross NC)

Mitch is a lifelong North Carolinian who has spent more than three decades providing financial leadership for companies in the health care, energy, and insurance industries.

In his current role, as Blue Cross NC's Chief Financial Officer, Mitch is responsible for overall financial leadership for the largest not-for-profit health insurance company in North Carolina and one of the largest in the nation. Prior to joining Blue Cross NC, he held leadership roles at Progress Energy and Century American Insurance Company, a regional medical malpractice insurance company. He began his career with KPMG, an international public accounting firm.

In addition to his work for Blue Cross NC, Mitch serves on the boards for several financial services and health-care related companies whose purpose aligns with Blue Cross NC's to strive to make health care better for all. He is also active in the community, currently serving on the boards for the Wake Forest University School of Business, the NC Association of Free & Charitable Clinics, and the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce.

Mitch is a Certified Public Accountant and a Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter, and he holds a Bachelor of Science from Wake Forest University and a Master of Business Administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Mitch is an avid runner and has completed 10 marathons. He and his wife, Laura, have two daughters.
