

AN NC CHAMBER EVENT

Health Care Conference

SEPTEMBER 15, 2022
DURHAM, NC

Iris Phillips
Founder, President & CEO

Ms. Phillips is a seasoned professional with more than fifteen (15) years of healthcare service administration and management-experience. She also has extensive experience in project management, business development, and human resources management in working with a wide range of national, commercial, state and federal clients. As CEO, Ms. Phillips, currently directs the activities of Grace Federal Solutions, LLC to ensure efficiency and economy of operations, on time and accurate delivery of contractual requirements, development, and execution of business strategies.

Ms. Phillips has held various healthcare administrative and management positions that include, recruiting, hiring, establishing work standards, and evaluating workforce requirements and capacity. Her clients include large teaching hospitals/universities, military treatment facilities and other federal and state research organizations and departments.

Grace Federal Solutions is a professional services company that provides healthcare and information technology consulting solutions and services to government agencies, healthcare organizations, and universities. A recognized leader in healthcare and digital transformation focused on delivering projects and services that include a wide range of strategies that results in a high level of customer satisfaction.

With a vision to provide superior-excellence, customized and cost-effective solutions to our clients that support front line clinicians in the healthcare industry, which ultimately impact patient care to millions of people across the country; Ms. Phillips displays the Grace Mission everywhere she goes.