

THE NC CHAMBER

Government Affairs Reception

FEBRUARY 22, 2023 | RALEIGH, NC

Representative Reives, II
House Democratic Leader
North Carolina House of Representatives

Robert T. Reives II is a native North Carolinian who calls Goldston home. He lives in Chatham County with his wife, the former Cynthia Taylor, and their two children Brianna Robert, III.

Robert is a double Tar Heel, attending North Carolina for both his undergraduate and law degree. He earned the Pogue Scholarship while studying at UNC as an undergrad before returning to acquire his law degree.

Upon graduation, he came home to Lee County to serve as a prosecutor for the district attorney's office. A few years later, he entered private practice and for two decades has been a partner in the law firm of Wilson, Reives & Silverman. The firm is known as a benefactor of education scholarships and events in the community.

Robert is active in his community as a board member of various organizations such as the Lee County Boys & Girls Club, the First Citizens Bank Local Advisory Board and more. He and his family attend Roberts Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Goldston and First Calvary Baptist Church in Sanford.

As a former prosecutor and a current attorney, Robert has a clear eye toward protecting those who are marginalized, vulnerable and oppressed. That same approach informs how he leads as a state representative.

Robert immediately took on leadership roles upon entering the General Assembly. As a freshman, he was tapped to be Freshman Caucus Co-Chair and was treasurer of the NC Legislative Black Caucus.

Since December of 2020, House Democrats have entrusted Robert to lead the House Democratic Caucus, electing him to be House Democratic Leader. As Leader, Robert helps guide debates and ensures that all members of the caucus have their opinions heard.

He represents District 54 in the North Carolina House of Representatives, comprising all of Chatham County and part of Durham County.

Committees

Representative Reives serves on the following committees for 2021-22:

- Agriculture
- Appropriations
- Appropriations, Justice and Public Safety
- Judiciary 2
- Redistricting
- Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House and