Tammy Robertson
Vice President and General Manager
Labcorp

Tammy Robertson is a Vice President and General Manager at Labcorp, where she leads a high-performing sub-region encompassing Eastern Virginia, Eastern North Carolina, and Northeastern South Carolina. With more than 20 years of service at Labcorp, Tammy brings deep operational expertise, commercial leadership experience, and a strong commitment to advancing healthcare delivery across the communities she serves.

A clinical laboratory scientist by training, Tammy earned her Bachelor of Science in Clinical Laboratory Science from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and completed her Med Tech degree at Moses Cone Hospital. Her career began in the laboratory, where she developed a strong foundation in clinical operations before transitioning into sales. This unique combination of operational and commercial experience positioned her to excel in increasingly complex leadership roles.

As General Manager, Tammy oversees all operations, logistics, phlebotomy, and sales functions within her sub-region, leading a workforce of approximately 1,100 employees. She is known for her strategic mindset, collaborative leadership style, and ability to drive performance while fostering a culture of accountability, engagement, and service excellence.

A native of Wilmington, North Carolina, Tammy is the proud mother of two adult children and the devoted owner of two boxers. Outside of work, she enjoys weightlifting, spending time outdoors, and embracing life along the Carolina coast.
