

AN NC CHAMBER EVENT

Health Care Conference

SEPTEMBER 20, 2019 | DURHAM, NC

Robert Shaw
Attorney, Head of Health Care Practice
Smith Anderson

Robert Shaw is an attorney with the business law firm Smith Anderson in Raleigh, focusing much of his practice on health care. Robert leads the firm's Health Care practice group and assists with value-based care strategies for health care providers and employers, including accountable care organizations, clinically integrated networks, bundled payments and wellness programs. He has extensive experience with M&A, tax planning, Medicare and Medicaid audits, business transactions, drafting physician agreements and employment agreements, and regulatory compliance.

