Kari serves as the local president for Bank of America in the Triangle region of North Carolina. In this role, she coordinates and integrates service as well as product delivery for all lines of business to bring the full resources of the company to the region. She also represents the Bank's local leadership team as the senior leader in community and civic activities.

Kari joined Bank of America in 1991 as a management trainee in the Management Associate Program for Consumer Banking. In 1993, she moved to Global Commercial Banking where she completed the Commercial Banking Relationship Manager Development Program. Her professional experience with Bank of America includes various leadership positions in Consumer Banking, Business Banking, Global Commercial Banking and Private Banking as well as a specialty in treasury/cash management.

Active in civic and community affairs throughout her career, Kari is currently a member of the following boards: Dix Park Conservancy, the Research Triangle Regional Partnership, the Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce EDGE 5 Steering Committee, the Fifty Group and the YMCA of the Triangle. Additionally, she serves on the advisory boards of Saint David's School and Band Together. She is also a member of The Women's Giving Network, the Carolina Women's Leadership Council, and is a graduate of Leadership North Carolina (2001).

Kari received her B.A. in history from The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
