

WOMEN LEAD NC

APRIL 28, 2023 | CHARLOTTE, NC

Jennifer Straub
Principal, Senior Client Management Consultant
Mercer

Jennifer Straub is a Principal based in Charlotte, NC and manages client relationships across different industries to solve for organizational needs and future strategy, while ensuring client success. Jen manages a portfolio of strategic large enterprise and global clients and is responsible to understand the goals, priorities and initiatives of each. Jen manages the overall relationship of those clients with Mercer aligning resources and insights across all Mercer competencies as well as the broader Marsh McLennan portfolio of services.

Jen joined Mercer in 2021 continuing her 20+ year career in client relationship management. Jen has experience leading global teams in the implementation of projects including (but not limited to) technology, strategy, risk, supply chain, human resources, legal and transaction oriented (M&A) initiatives. Prior to joining Mercer Jen developed her experience at Xerox, EY and Gartner.

Jen earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from West Virginia University. Her degree included a major focus of study in Marketing with a minor focus in Communications. During Jen's time at West Virginia University, she studied in China participating in classes with Chinese business executives and graduate students to enhance her education experience.