Shruti Tannan, MD
Board Certified Plastic Surgeon
Tannan Plastic Surgery

Dr. Shruti Tannan is a board-certified plastic and reconstructive surgeon with a thriving private practice and on-site operating room in Brier Creek (Tannan Plastic Surgery) in Raleigh, NC. She is equal parts businesswoman, surgeon, entrepreneur, blogger, educator and passionate advocate for women in leadership. She went from being an Assistant Professor at the high-powered, fast-paced academic trauma center at Wake Forest University School of Medicine to start her own business and medical practice in the Triangle from the ground up. Every day she puts her passion to work, helping women and men look and feel their best on this journey called life. Raised in a small town just north of Raleigh, Dr. Tannan came to the Triangle to attend the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics in Durham, NC. She then made her way to UNC-Chapel Hill for undergraduate studies and medical school, where she also met and married her fellow Tar Heel husband. Dr. Tannan is a proud mother to her spunky 6-year-old daughter and nearly one-year-old son. When she is not making other moms' lives better at her plastic surgery office or mentoring the next generation of physicians and leaders, Dr. Tannan enjoys family adventures, swimming, yoga, hiking, fine wine, and good books.
