

Using Your Privilege To Become an Ally in Your Organization and Beyond

Sharon Delaney McCloud, CDE®

Privilege Walk: Reflection & Call To Action

Reflection

What are some of the privileges that you identified from the privilege walk?

What are some of the challenges or obstacles that stood out to you from the privilege walk?

Reflection

In what ways were sacrifices made for you to have some of the privileges that you realized during the privilege walk?

After participating in the privilege walk, how would you describe the meaning of privilege to others?

Identifying Privilege & Creating Impact

- . Identify your privileges and/or obstacles
- . Identify spaces you show up in
- . Brainstorm how your privileges and/or obstacles can impact and create change in a space you show up in
- . Identify a gap or need in a space and link back to a privilege and/or obstacle you hold

Call to Action

Schedule time with yourself and/or your team to:

- Complete the suggested reflection questions
- Identify privileges/obstacles, spaces you show up in, and gaps in spaces that your privilege could create impact and change

Call to Action

- How will you use your time and resources over the next 30 days to work toward this goal of examining your privilege?
- Share a way you've advocated for someone without your privilege in your workplace or community.
- Continue the conversation with someone who has participated in the privilege walk and share your learnings.

Stay Connected!

 the-diversity-movement

 thediversitymovement

 diversitymvmt

 thediversitymovement

 thediversitymovement.com

 SharonDelaneyMcCloud