

Jessica Vester, CFP®

Assistant Vice President
Relationship Advisor
F.N.B. Wealth Management
Trust and Retirement Services Group

Jessica Vester is Assistant Vice President, Relationship Advisor II with F.N.B in the Triangle and Eastern North Carolina Markets. With 10 years of experience in the financial services industry, she is a trusted and innovative advisor helping clients do more with their assets and resources as they work to shape their future. In this role her primary focus is to help clients identify, prioritize, and achieve their life goals. She creates a customized comprehensive financial plan that provides solutions in the most tax efficient manner possible while protecting clients from risks they had not considered. She brings a deep understanding of the financial planning process and believes in the power of planning and its ability to connect data and numbers to what is possible in her clients' future.

Prior to joining F.N.B. she spent the last 5 years as a Wealth Planning Analyst at First Citizens Bank in Raleigh, NC. She worked with high net worth individuals and families providing advice on trust and estate planning, risk management, investments, tax planning, charitable gifting, and, education and retirement planning through creation of customized, goal based wealth plans.

Jessica is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a degree in Journalism and Mass Communication and Romance Languages. She is also a member of the Wake County Estate Planning Council and holds a CFP® designation, series 7 and 66 securities licenses and a Certified Exit Planning Advisor (CEPA) designation. When not working she enjoys an active lifestyle and acrylic painting.
