

CHARLES C. WEATHERS, SR.

PROFESSIONAL SPEAKER, ENTREPRENEUR, AND LEADERSHIP IMPROVEMENT STRATEGIST.

As the founder of The Weathers Group, a management consulting firm specializing in organizational behavior and development, Charles is a nationally recognized speaker, writer and consultant. He is known for his ability to help groups navigate difficult conversations and he captivates audiences with contagious energy, insight and humor.

Weathers is a veteran of the U.S. Air Force, a Forbes Coaches Council member, an American Leadership Forum Senior Fellow, a Riley Diversity Fellow (Furman University), a member of the Institute of Management Consultants and, a member of the National Speakers Association.

In his mission to positively impact lives, Weathers has made headlines by lending his voice to disruptive companies in the nonprofit, government and private sectors. Charles has logged more than 16,000 facilitation hours over the last 15 years developing solutions for clients ranging from grassroots community organizations to billion-dollar business enterprises. His work has touched the lives of leading executives at TD Bank, BASF Corporation, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and countless foundations and organizations across the globe.

Charles enjoys volunteering with numerous organizations and is a proud board member of Goodwill Industries of the Upstate/Midlands of SC. A trusted advisor and coach, he and his family reside in Columbia, South Carolina. You can follow Charles on social media channels at @CharlesWeathers and learn more by visiting www.charlescweathers.com.